2023 Fannin County Junior Livestock Show General Rules and Regulations

1. The show is open to all bona fide and active 4-H and/or FFA members of the current year, in Fannin County. Exhibitors cannot have participated in any other county market sales during the current school year. All entries will be shown by the owner. Any exceptions will be determined by the committee

2. OWNERSHIP and TAG-IN

All market animals must be owned by, in possession of, and under the continuous care of the exhibitor on and after tag in date.

- Steers- will be tagged on the designated date set by AST's and CEA at the Fannin County Multipurpose Complex or will be validated in accordance with the state validation guidelines. Parents must be in attendance or submit the waiver to allow steers to be validated through the State Validation Program.
- Goats, Lambs, and Swine- will be tagged on the designated date set by AST's and CEA at the Fannin County Multipurpose Complex or will be validated in accordance with the state validation guidelines. Parents must be in attendance or submit the waiver to allow animals to be validated through the State Validation Program.
- Fryer Rabbits- Validation will be 6 weeks prior to show. Please ask your AST or CEA for date and time (to be held no more than 4 weeks or less than 2 weeks prior to show date)
- Broilers- Chicks provided by the Fannin County Fair will be the only ones accepted.
- Breeding Livestock- Must be owned by, in the possession of, and under the continuous care of exhibitors by September 1st.
- Replacement Heifers – must be owned and in continuous care of the Exhibitor by June 30th.

3. All livestock rules and regulations will be interpreted and enforced by the FCJLA. An appeal of a Division Superintendent's decision may be made to the Livestock Superintendent by submitting a $200.00 cash deposit for the appeal fee. The appeal must be written, plainly stating the reason for the appeal. The written appeal and cash deposit must be delivered to the Livestock Superintendent within 1 hour from the conclusion of the show division to be appealed. Decision of the Livestock Superintendent is final. Appeals not upheld by the Livestock Superintendent will forfeit the appeal fee of $200.00. Judges' decisions are not subject to appeal.
4. Violation of any rule of the Fannin County Fair can result in exhibitors being disqualified for the current and following year. Violators are subject to dismissal from the fairgrounds and the forfeiture of prize and sale money.
5. Judge's decision will be final. Any exhibitors showing disrespect for the judge will be promptly disqualified.
6. Only exhibitors and authorized personnel will be allowed in the show and sale rings during the showing and selling of projects.
7. The rules of the Animal Health Commission apply. No health papers will be required. However, animals demonstrating signs of sickness shall be removed from the grounds immediately by the exhibitor upon decision of the overseeing superintendent. After the livestock show is over, all placing will be final. If a market animal becomes ill between the show and the market sale, the exhibitor will be allowed to bring a substitute animal through the sale ring.
8. Aisles and alleys are to be kept neat, clean and open to the public always.
9. Exhibitors will be required to furnish, feed, and care for their animals during the show. To avoid messes, exhibitors are not to leave unattended water in swine pens.
10. Tie spaces and pens will be assigned by the Division Superintendent.
11. NIGHT CURFEW: Lights will be turned off at 11:00 pm each night. Only designated security personnel will be allowed to stay past that time. This will be strictly enforced.

12. Entry Fees:

● Cattle (Beef & Replacement Heifers)	$30.00
● Breeding Sheep, Swine, Goats	$25.00
● Market Broilers	$25.00
● Market Fryers	$25.00
● Breeding Rabbits & Poultry	$5.00
● Shop Projects	$30.00
● Floral	$10.00

13. A Premium Sale will be held on Saturday evening. Sale order of each species/division will begin with Grand and Reserve Champion, followed by determination by the judge in each species. Each species/division will determine a set number of alternates after all predetermined numbers have been met. The exhibitor has the option to decline entry in the sale. Decision will be made at the time of selection of the sale order for that species/division. Each exhibitor can have up to two different projects in the sale, as long as they are not of the same species. If the exhibitor has more than two projects to qualify, they may choose which two projects they put in the sale.

Breed	Number to Sell
Market Steers	50% or top 7
Market Lambs	25% or top 7
Market Swine	25% or top 7
Market Goats	25% or top 7
Broilers	25%
Fryers	25%
Replacement Heifers	75%
Shop Projects	Division Winners
Floral Design Projects	Division Winners

14. Arrival- All livestock will enter from FM 87 entrance on respected days per each specie.

15. Showmanship will consist of two age divisions. Junior (3rd to 8th grades) and Senior (9th to 12th grades) in school. Showmanship is open to all eligible exhibitors and will be at the beginning of each show. Exhibitors must have entered an animal in that species and show their own animal.

16. Awards will be:

- Belt Buckle to Division Champions
- Belt Buckle to Division Reserve Champions
- Ribbons through top 5 places in each class

17. No exhibitor may advertise from stall areas.

18. Exhibitors may use any normally accepted ethical fitting product (spray, oil, sheen, etc.). No changing of the animal's major color pattern, no false hair, foreign leg building material, or glue will be permitted. Exhibitors are encouraged to do their major clipping before arrival, however, touch up clipping will be allowed on the grounds. Due to power supply limitations, generators are encouraged.

Division rules may supersede this rule.

19. All unruly animals will be removed from the ring at the judge's discretion.
20. All entries must be signed and submitted by the Count Agent or supervising Ag Teacher. Entries turned in by individuals will not be accepted.
21. All Ag Teachers and County Extension Agent are responsible for their exhibitors conduct and dress throughout the fair.
22. Animals MAY NOT be decorated for the sale. They must go through the sale ring in the same state as they were shown.
23. An exhibitor can only sell two lots on sale night. It can be any combination of species/division but not two animals from the same species/division. The exception to this rule is an exhibitor may sell two replacement females but nothing else.

Market Steer Division

Superintendent, Kenny Roberts

1. All general rules and regulations apply.
2. Tag-in will be according to State Validation Guidelines and must be done by the last day of June.
